

“Lion Account CMMR170055” CAMPAIGN REGULATIONS

Campaign organised by ING Belgium SA/nv

1. The "Lion Account CMMR170055" Campaign (hereafter "the Campaign") is organised by ING Belgium SA/nv (hereafter "ING"), avenue Marnix 24, B-1000 Brussels, Brussels RPM/RPR, VAT BE 0403.200.393.

2. This Campaign starts on 19/06/2017 and ends on 06/08/2017.

3. The Campaign is open to any private individual of at least 18 years of age who takes part in their own name, is resident in Belgium and is not already the (joint) holder of a current account with ING Belgium as at 19/06/2017.

4. Participation is valid upon opening an ING Lion Account (subject to the prior acceptance of ING Belgium and mutual agreement) or ING Green Account current account between 19/06/2017 and 06/08/2017 inclusive and activating ING Home Bank or Smart Banking services for smartphones or tablets during the same period. All participants who meet these criteria will receive 50 euros into their new ING Lion Account or ING Green Account current account during September 2017.

The offer is limited to a single payment of 50 euros per account (whether it is opened in the name of one or more holders) and per person (the same person can only receive the gift for a single account opened in their name).

5. The prizes offered in connection with this Campaign cannot be transferred, and may under no circumstances be resold or exchanged for other products or services.

The allocation of the prizes may not be disputed under any circumstance, except in the case of serious or deliberate error on the part of ING.

6. Except for the case of deliberate or serious error on their part, neither ING nor its staff nor any third parties to which there is recourse for purposes of this Campaign will be liable for any loss whatever arising from the organisation of this Campaign, including any loss sustained in taking part in the Campaign or relating to the allocation of the prizes. Subject to the same reserve, neither ING nor the aforementioned parties can be held liable for any technical problems arising during this Campaign which are encountered by themselves, the participants and/or any third party which may interrupt or delay this Campaign, or the organisation of this Competition or for any corruption or loss of data relating to a Participation in this Campaign. If, in the event or following an event beyond its control, the Campaign were cancelled, suspended or modified, ING could not in any case be held liable for compensation.

7. Participants lose their right to a prize in the event of fraud, in whatever form, or if any illicit agreement is concluded in bad faith between the participants with a view to influencing their chances of winning. ING reserves the right to demand, where appropriate, the return of the prize or to exclude the relevant participants from participation in any future Campaign or competition organised by ING. Exclusion may not be disputed under any circumstance, except in the case of serious or deliberate error on the part of ING.

8. No information about this Campaign will be exchanged, with the exception of the communication of these regulations, available at the website www.ing.be/competition, as well as upon written request in accordance with these Regulations. Subject to the same exceptions, no answers will be given to any letters, telephone calls, faxes or e-mails about the Campaign.

9. The personal data communicated by the participants to ING pursuant to the Campaign will be processed by ING for the purposes of marketing banking and insurance services (in particular the organisation of this Campaign) and centralising customer management. The data of the participants will also be communicated to the other companies of the group ING exercising banking, financial and insurance activities within the European Union (list available upon request) for the purposes of marketing (except e-mail advertising), as well as centralising customer management.

Sponsors may check their personal data and have it rectified if necessary. They may object, on request and free of charge, to the processing by ING of the data relating to them for the purposes of direct marketing and/or the communication of such data to other companies of the group ING exercising banking, financial and insurance activities in the European Union for the same purposes. Participants can obtain more information by consulting Article 6 (Protection of Privacy) of the General Regulations of ING.

10. Any participant in the Campaign is deemed to be aware of the contents of these Regulations. Participation in this Campaign implies unreserved acceptance by participants of the entirety of these Regulations and of any decision taken by the organisers to ensure that the Campaign is conducted properly.

11. These Regulations are translated into Dutch and English. The Campaign called “Lion Account CMMR170055” in French, “Lion Account CMMR170055” in Dutch and “Lion Account CMMR170055” in English is one and the same Campaign.

12. The Campaign is subject to Belgian law.
