Taxes	The following tax regulation is applicable to an average, non-professional client, who is a private individual and a resident of Belgium: A tax of 2% is deducted from deposits made by a natural person with his/her tax residence in Belgium. A tax of 4.4% is deducted from the deposits if the contract has been entered into by a legal entity. Under certain conditions, you are entitled to a tax benefit on the premium payments. This can be a tax reduction within the framework of long-term savings. If you list the paid premiums on your tax return (even once), this will result in the tax appraisal of the insured capital. Otherwise, the benefit is exempt from tax (any inheritance tax excluded). Ask your insurance broker or company for information. The tax treatment depends on the individual circumstances of a client and may be subject to change in the future.
Surrender/withdrawal	You can opt to lower your insured percentage. By so doing you insure a percentage of the outstanding credit amount. If you opt to surrender your contract, one-off costs can be charged of 5% on the premiums paid by the policyholder, less the amount used for risk cover in the event of death less taxes and costs.
Information	The decision to sign or initiate the said product is best done based on a complete analysis of all relevant documents with contractual or pre-contractual information. For more information on this ING Term Life Insurance product, please consult the general terms and conditions of the contract, which may be obtained free of charge on request from the head office of the insurance company and which can always be consulted at the website www.ing.be or with your broker. If an insurance company with a licence in Belgium is declared bankrupt, any surrender value of the agreement is covered by the Belgian protective mechanism in the amount of EUR 100,000 per person and per insurance company. NN Insurance Belgium SA/NV is a member of the legally required Belgian system. More information on this protective mechanism can be found on the website www.bijzonderbeschermingsfonds.be.
